

BOOK REVIEWS: TITLE COLLAGE

Write the title of the book you plan to use for your Book Review Project in the center of a white piece of paper. Find 50 words and phrases that describe your book that use different adjectives, verbs, and adverbs and write them in a collage surrounding the title at the center. Use a purple marker to go over the letters of your book's title. Make all adjectives blue. Make all verbs green. Make all adverbs red. No nouns, pronouns, conjunctions, prepositions, or interjections allowed.

Example:

Remember:

- Your title goes in the center.
- You need at least 50 words and/or phrases surrounding your title in any pattern.
- Only use adjectives, verbs, and adverbs.
- Color code your words using the directions above.
